

Private lessons with Dr. Elder

Dear Friend,

We offer you an exclusive opportunity to study one-on-one with Dr. Alexander Elder. This is suitable for a serious trader whose schedule doesn't allow him or her to participate in a Traders' Camp.

Your lessons will take place at Dr. Elder's country house in the resort area of southern Vermont (4 hours' drive from New York, 3 from Boston, 1.25 from Albany). A stay at a comfortable local inn is included.

Prior to your arrival Dr. Elder will talk with you on the phone about your needs and wishes. He'll create a plan for your consultation and may suggest some reading before you arrive.

The recommended duration of a consultation is five to six hours daily. More can be scheduled, but we find that beyond that time new material tends to become overwhelming. A consultation may last longer than a day and may include live trading.

Following your visit you'll be welcome to contact Dr. Elder for follow-up at no additional cost. Please feel free to contact me at info@elder.com to discuss your needs.

Best regards,

Patricia
